

Dear Greeley,

I'm so glad that you picked me as your penpal.

I'll send you a picture as soon as I have one.

I turned 87 on the fifth of December. My family took me out for luncheon. We went to the Joseph Smith building. It's where my granddaughter and her husband had their wedding reception. Their names are Becky and Dennis Collings. They are the parents of my two great grand sons.

I moved to Salt Lake City from Drem so I could be close to them.

I have 4 siblings still living in Wisconsin. I hope that I will be able to see them again.

I wish you HAPPY HOLIDAYS.

Your PENPAL,
PAULINE
